Objective

- Wyoming Cattlewomen's objective is to develop educational awareness about delicious, nutritious beef and to promote a better understanding of the various roles the beef industry plays in the environment and economy. We are active in promotion and industry issues. Projects and activities vary by community, but many groups participate in County Fairs, Ag Expos, cooking demonstrations and other activities throughout our Wyoming communities.

Associate Memberships

- Associate Memberships in the Wyoming CattleWomen enables you and/or your business name to be included in our State publication "Beef It" Newsletter. Your name is also on our Website—www.wyocattlewomen.org
- You may also pay online for your membership.

Goal

The primary goal of Wyoming CattleWomen has not changed throughout the years - to maintain and increase the demand for beef and to promote a positive image of our industry.

Across Wyoming and the USA, CattleWomen volunteers promote beef and understanding of our agriculture industry to both adult and youth consumers at events and one-on-one.
